

Copyright and Liability Statements

Copyright Statement

All hosted material must comply with Copyright Law. The onus on checking copyright is with the author(s) of the content of the works deposited. Copyright and all rights therein are retained by authors or by other copyright holders unless expressly stated otherwise. Permissions for third-party material used in work must have been sought and gained before depositing. All persons copying or sharing works must also adhere to the terms and constraints legally invoked by each author's copyright (including third-party copyright holders) unless otherwise stated, e.g. a Creative Commons Licence. Often these works may not be reposted or re-used without the explicit permission of the copyright holder. This is particularly relevant for third-party material, especially images, tables and other visual matter.

Liability Statement

The University of Worcester repository, Worcester Research and Publications (WRaP), contains material submitted by and on behalf of members of the University of Worcester. The repository administrators and the University of Worcester explicitly disclaim, to the extent permitted by law, any responsibility for the content or form of information located in materials deposited in the repository, or for any copyright breach or damage incurred owing to use of the information contained therein.

June 2024